CABLE NEWS

AMSTERDAM.—An industrial revolt of staggering proportions menaces all Germany today.

Nearly one million men and women workers, mostly engaged in war work are on a strike.

Newspapers are being suspended all over the German empire. Even the great Berliner Tageblatt has been suppressed. The Hamburg Echo is another newspaper of tremendous influence that has been suspended by government order.

Public meetings have been forbidden, and the Imperial government is threatening to put the nation under martial law with Von Hindenburg as the dictator unless the agitation ceases.

BERNE.—There was a clash today between the soldiers and strikers in the suburbs of Berlin in which a number of lives were lost. In some instances the troops absolutely refused to fire on the strikers.

COPENHAGEN.—A state of siege has been declared at Hamburg, Altona and Wandsbeck.

The Socialist leaders have asked President Kaempf of the Reichstag to summon the Reichstag immediately in view of the alarming conditions.

ZURICH.—Vorwaerts announces that the Berlin strikers have addressed to the government an ultimatum of their demands following the principal demands that have already been made and which have had very little if any consideration. The workmen want the conclusion of a general peace without indemnities or annexations; the participation of workmen's delegates from all countries involved in the peace pour parlers; amelioration of the food situation; abolition of state of siege; restoration of the right of public meeting of workmen which has been suspended by military authorities; abolition of militarization in munition factories; release of all political prisoners; democratization of state institutions, and equal electoral suffrage.

PARIS.—Twenty killed and 50 wounded when German aeroplanes rained bombs on Paris last night in the first raid on the metropolis since July. When the alarm was sounded all took cover while French aeroplanes went out to meet the invaders.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE.—Taking advantage of a thick mist a strong force of German troops raided an American listening post Wednesday morning killing two Americans, wounding four and capturing one. The raid followed a heavy barrage fire which lasted fifteen minutes completely isolating the post from the first line of trenches. The fighting lasted 20 minutes.

LONDON.—Sixteen British vessels torpedoed week ending Wednesday.

WASHINGTON.—Secretary of Interior Lane has written chairman of the shipping board endorsing idea of building a number of tugs and barges to carry supplies to Alaska "If such tonnage provided be available to bring back coal."

Basketball Game

The Metlakatla basketball boys arrived in Wrangell on the Good Tidings at 4 o'clock yesterday and a game was arranged for last night which resulted in a score of 32 to 22 in favor of Metlakatla. The game was lively enough to be interesting and furnished a most enjoyable evening for all who were present. The Wrangell boys put up a splendid fight for a team that had had no practice. The five boys composing the Wrangell team had never played together as a team. Three of Wrangell's best players were not on the floor. Weston Dalgity is temporarily a cripple. George Sylvester and Harry Coulter are out of town. Following the game there was a dance, the music being furnished by the Native band. The Metlakats are a fine lot of fellows and played a good clean game. They left this morning for Juneau where they will play a series of six games with various teams on Gastineau channel. They promised Wrangell a return game on their way home. The line-up for the game last night was as follows:

Metlakatla	Wrangell
R. Atkinson	F. Ed Lynch
D. Nelson	F. Wm. Lewis
Ed Lessk	C. Chas. Moore
H. Hudson	G. Lloyd Meyers
A. Booth	G. C. Lewis

The lecture at the gymnasium last night by Brigadier J. R. McLean was fairly well attended and most instructive.

Mr. Snyder Heard From

Dallas, Oregon.
Jan. 22, 1918.

Editor Sentinel:

Two recent issues of your spicy publication fell into my hands a day or two ago, and as "father" of the Sentinel I desire to congratulate you upon the very excellent paper you are making—both editorially and typographically. When I read these issues it made me a trifle homesick, as Wrangell is one of the pleasantest towns in which I ever lived—socially, climatically and commercially. I was particularly struck with your report of a Red Cross meeting, at which over $200 was realized for that worthy cause, and I said to Mrs. Snyder, "You know they never did things by halves at Wrangell."

Again congratulating you and the people of Wrangell, with kind regards to all old friends, I am

Yours truly,
A. V. R. SNYDER.

Lynn Miller, publisher of the Petersburg Report, paid the Sentinel a fraternal call while the Jefferson was in port Tuesday. Mr. Miller was en route to Tacoma to attend the funeral of his mother who died in California last week.

McCormack Returns From California

Hon. P. C. McCormack returned on the Princess Sophia Tuesday. Mr. McCormack left his family in San Diego. He reports that his little son, Peter, has recovered from his operation and that the whole family are doing nicely. They will remain in California at least until spring. Mr. McCormack reports that business is good all along the coast, and that there is also considerable evidence of patriotism.

On January 12 Mr. McCormack had the pleasure of going through two degrees in the Knights of Columbus in a class of 73 which was composed largely of officers and enlisted men in the Army and Navy. An officer of the San Diego lodge upon learning that Mr. McCormack had received his first degree in Alaska invited him to join the class and take the second and third degrees there. Mr. McCormack replied that he would feel honored to become a member of the class if it could be arranged. The San Diego lodge then cabled to the Juneau lodge and obtained permission to confer the degrees on him there. Mr. McCormack states that it was the greatest lodge affair that he ever attended, and that he will ever regard it as one of the most pleasant and impressive events of his life.

Letter from the Front

Somewhere in France,
To the Editor

"Wrangell Sentinel."
I just wanted to drop you a line from the front and tell you that the Wrangell Sentinel has been under heavy fire, but by good luck came through O. K. I am with No. 3 Company, 6th Batt., C. R. T.—B. E. F., France. News will probably mention what they were doing end of November past. We are not allowed to give any news; all I can say is, things look well.

I carried your paper on me and will always be glad of a copy.

This will give all my old time friends a greeting and would be glad of a line from any of them. If we only had a drop of Johnny Grant's whiskey here it would be welcome in the wet mornings.

Hope I will see some of the boys here soon. We need them all. I have a chum here from the Pelly River, Yukon Territory, Fred E. Enevoldsen, No. 2203450, an old timer who would also like to hear from some of the old soursdoughs.

Well we wish you all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, but especially to yourself.

From yours sincerely,
H. B. EASTMAN.
Address as centre of letter No. 2203581.

Albert Dubke is seeking business in the line of painting, tinting and paper hanging, and general house repairing. Mr. Dubke did quite a little work in Wrangell last summer which speaks for itself. See his ad in this issue.

E. J. La Bounty received a beautiful Christmas card a few days ago from "Somewhere in France." It was sent by his cousin Wm. LaBounty who has been in France for the past two years. The soldier's home is Tupper Lake, New York.

Lawrence Taylor was painfully hurt a few days ago in a street car wreck in San Pedro, Cal. Several ribs were broken and he was otherwise injured. The man who was occupying a seat with Mr. Taylor was killed.

Mail Contract Will Go to Leo McCormack

The next contract for carrying mail from Wrangell to the West Coast points will almost certainly go to Leo McCormack.

Mr. McCormack has received notice from the government that his proposal has been accepted. The West Coast mail contract is now held by W. J. Neill, who, it is understood, was an applicant for the new contract.

When seen by the Sentinel reporter Mr. McCormack stated that the acceptance of a proposal by the government is merely tentative and that until the contract is actually signed there is nothing certain about the matter.

Mr. McCormack was asked concerning what size boat he would use in case he secured the contract. He replied that primarily he was seeking the mail contract, and that beyond that he would be influenced by the volume of business in sight and the demands of the West Coast trade.

Being pretty short on news this week the reporter asked Mr. McCormack if he expected to buy a boat or build one. He replied: "Mr. Editor, I have given this mail contract so little thought that I don't know whether I shall use a boat or an aeroplane."

SCHOOL NOTES

The school has received from the Commissioner of Education copies of a loyalty pledge which was printed for use in the schools of Alaska and has the approval of the Territorial Food Administrator Gunnison.

LOYALTY PLEDGE ALASKA SCHOOLS

We, pupils of the _____, Alaska schools, being loyal to our country, the United States of America, and knowing that our soldiers and sailors, with their comrades, are at present fighting against those who would destroy liberty in the world and overthrow our Nation, do hereby pledge ourselves to the following in order that we may assist in this great cause and help to make the world a better place for boys and girls of all nations:

1. We will be loyal in word and deed to the government of the United States of America and of the Territory of Alaska.
2. We will help our parents or those with whom we live to save wheat, meat, fats and sugar.
3. We will not waste food or anything else which is useful to our country.
4. We will help save sugar by eating not more than half as much candy as we have been eating.
5. We will be careful of our shoes and clothing in order that they may be worn for as long a time as possible.
6. We will perform our school tasks in such a way that we may be of real use to our Country and to the world.

Voted upon and adopted by the pupils of this room on _____, 1918.

Teacher.

AN APPEAL IS MADE DIRECT TO AMERICANS

WASHINGTON.—The American government received the following cablegram from Lord Rhonnda, food controller of Great Britain:

"Unless you are able to send the Allies at least seventy-five million bushels of wheat over and above what you have exported up to January 1, and in addition to the total exportable surplus from Canada, I cannot take the responsibility of assuring the people that there will be food enough to win the war."

"Imperative necessity compels me to cable you in this blunt way. No one knows better than I that the American people, regardless of national and individual sacrifice have so far refused nothing that is needed for the war, but it now lies with the Americans to decide whether the Allies in Europe have enough bread to hold out until the United States is able to throw its force into the field."

"I have not minced my words because I am convinced that the American people, if they know the truth, will not hesitate to meet the emergency."

Mr. Hoover, replied for America as follows:

"We will export every grain the American people save from their normal consumption. We believe that our people will not fail to meet the emergency."

Mr. Hoover points out further that we must find fifteen million bushels additional for Belgium, and ten million bushels for other neutral countries, making a total of one hundred million bushels of wheat.

UNITED STATES
FOOD ADMINISTRATION
Juneau, Alaska.
Jan. 23, 1918

F. L. Bronson, Esq.,
Wrangell, Alaska.

My dear Mr. Bronson:

Your letter of 17th inst.—the pledge signed by all eating houses in your town mentioned therein has not yet arrived. I congratulate you and the patriotic people of Wrangell upon the excellent showing made. Your telegram of several days ago that more corn meal had been sold in the past two months than in the five preceding years was indeed most gratifying. This good news has been sent to Washington.

Your telegram to Mr. Herbert—It is not now necessary to keep up the weekly reporting from the homes. It is, however, sought to secure new pledges and continually preach conservation. In a short time will be mailed you the new home card supplements with directions from the United States Food Administration up to date; also copies of an interesting corn meal and oat meal leaflet for distribution to all homes.

Yours very truly,
ROYAL A. GUNNISON,
Federal Food Administrator for Alaska.

Concerning Illegal Fishing

Last week Wm. H. Lewis, Fred Wigg, and Walter Campen were subpoenaed to appear before the Federal Grand Jury at Juneau.

The gentlemen are of course not at liberty to report what was done in the Grand Jury room, but there is little doubt that they were summoned to give expert opinion on fishing conditions in Southeastern Alaska. When the final report of the Grand Jury was delivered to the Hon. Robert W. Jennings, Judge, it contained the following recommendations:

"Believing that the salmon of Southeastern Alaska is being depleted and that the annual takes of salmon are exceeding the natural production, we recommend that a hearing be held by the Secretary of Commerce during the present year to determine the advisability of limiting or prohibiting commercial fishing for salmon in all streams of Southeastern Alaska, and for a distance outside the mouths thereof not to exceed five hundred yards, with the exception of the streams between Yakutat and Cape Spencer which shall be made the subjects of such special provisions or exceptions as individual conditions make necessary and advisable, and that the streams on which hatcheries are located be likewise given special consideration or exemption."

"It is our belief that such a provision would go far towards conserving and perpetuating the supply of salmon and preventing illegal fishing, and also prevent the taking of fish that are unfit for food and that should be allowed to spawn."

"We recommend that the Bureau of Fisheries appoint as many special men during the summer as stream watchmen as may be necessary for the reason that the present force of officers in charge of such matters are wholly insufficient to prevent illegal fishing in these streams on account of their great number and the wide territory over which they are scattered."

"We recommend that the Bureau of Fisheries, with the Council of National Defense, take such steps as are necessary to prohibit the use of edible fish for fertilizer, meals and oil and require that the natural waste from salmon canning, mild-curing and salting operations be utilized to such good purposes as the manufacture of fertilizer, meals and oils for food for fur-bearing animals in captivity."

Agent Leo McCormack of the Pacific Steamship Company has been advised that the Spokane will leave Seattle Saturday, arriving in Wrangell next Tuesday. She will call at Wrangell south-bound on Saturday, February 9. After this trip the Spokane will be put on the Westward run and will not call at Wrangell any more.

Presbyterian Church.

A wonderful responsibility. It must be met. The account must be given by you, by me, by every one. How is it kept?

Text: Mathew 12: 36, 37. "But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned."

There are many interesting things connected with this subject that concern you and me. Come and let us think over them together.

Next Sunday eve at the Presbyterian church.

The Secretary said that much criticism came from the impatience of the American people to "do this this great thing quickly." He said that in so great an enterprise it is impossible that there should not be delays and shortcomings. The mistakes cited in Chamberlain's speech, Baker declared, gave a disproportionate aspect without intent. He said the effect of the Senator's speech was to give the country the impression that deficiencies were characteristic rather than occasional.

"Where is the average man of small means going to keep his fifty-dollar bond?" The question has been asked in several parts of the country, and in some parts has been satisfactorily answered by public-spirited bankers who have offered to undertake the safe-keeping of these bonds for their owners free of cost.

The students who have been told that "coal is bottled sunshine" will be surprised to read that Explorer Macmillan says the land he has been over in the Arctic region is filled with coal for schoolboys don't associate that territory with sunshine.

German actors have been ordered to appear on the stage clad only in old clothing, lest they arouse the envy of the populace. In America, should it become necessary, our stage will likely economize by wearing as little as possible!

The Pennsylvania agricultural department has come forward with a plea to save the humble but useful egg-producing hen and to kill her only when she becomes old and worn out. For such is the gratitude of republics.
